FBI Agents Jail 4 Georgia Men For Slaying Of Negro Educator

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Four white men were arrested by the FBI Thursday night in connection with the slaying of a Washington, D.C., Negro educator who was killed by a shotgun blast as he drove through a rural Georgia area.

U.S. Commissioner Giriard Hawkins said one of the four — James S. Lackey, 28 — admitted complicity in the death of Lemuel Penn, an Army reserve lieutenant colonel slain July 11. Hawkins said Lackey implicated the others.

The FBI identified the men as Ku Klux Klansmen. They were held in jail under bonds of $25,000 each after arraignment before Hawkins on charges filed under the new Civil Rights Act.

State authorities looked into the possibility of filing murder charges against Lackey, a gas station attendant; Herbert Guest, 37, a garage operator; Cecil William Myers, a yarn-picker and laborer, and Joseph Howard Sims, 41, a machinist, all of Athens.

A deputy sheriff from Madison County appeared at the Clarke County jail here with murder warrants, but said no information on the warrants would be disclosed immediately.

Both Gov. Carl Sanders and Solicitor General (prosecutor) Clete Johnson, whose judicial circuit includes Madison County where Penn was slain, promised state court action if they determined the men were responsible.

"The state most certainly will prosecute the murder charge very vigorously if the evidence is there," said Johnson. He said he first would have to determine what evidence the FBI has.

the men carries a maximum penalty of a $3,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment while a Simms "did shoot and kill" Penn. All four were charged with first-degree murder charged filed under state laws can carry the death penalty.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover announced the arrests in Washington climaxing an intensive three-week hunt for the slayers.

Penn was killed when a vehicle pulled alongside and two shotgun blasts were fired into his car. One blast struck him in the left side of the neck and he died instantly.

Hancock Democrats Attend State Session In Huntington

Atty. Edward A. Zagula of Weirton led Hancock County's delegation to the Democratic State Convention in Huntington, where adoption of a party platform for this year's state campaign and selection of presidential elector nominees are slated this weekend.

He is chairman of the county's Democratic Executive Committee. Hancock has 68 delegates eligible to attend the convention opening Saturday afternoon, with not all to attend.

State Atty. Gen. C. Donald Robertson is to speak at a reception for delegates tonight, replacing Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. as a major speaker. Roosevelt canceled plans to attend and is vacationing in Maine.

Former State Senate president Ralph J. Bean of Moorefield will give the keynote address.

Delegates will choose seven presidential elector nominees — two at large and one from each of the five congressional districts. Hancock is part of the 1st District.

The seven will cast West Virginia's seven electoral votes if the Democrats carry the state in the November presidential election.

The 2,803 convention delegates were elected by local conventions in the state's 353 magisterial districts.

Deputy Paul R. Cowey of Chester, chairman of the Grant District delegation, and Deputy Joseph Rainey of New Cumberland, chairman in Clay District, are unable to attend. Eligible from the county are 13 delegates from Grant, seven from Clay, and 48 from Butler in the Weirton area.

Rainbow Girls Choir In Palestine Preview

EAST PALESTINE — Some 100 attended a "parents' preview" presented by the Rainbow Girls Choir Thursday night at the Masonic Temple.

The 30-voice choir gave numbers it will sing when it participates in the State Assembly at Ohio University in Athens next week.

Directed by Charles K. Laber, the choir will leave Thursday and return Sunday night.

Californian, 93, Fired His Own Moon Shots

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Federal, state and Kern County authorities raided the home of 93-year-old Otis Sledge Thursday to climax a three-month investigation.

They found 15 gallons of moonshine corn whisky and 250 empty bottles.

Sledge was jailed on a charge of selling and possessing illegal whisky.

Decline Reported In U.S. Jobless

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unemployment dropped to 4.9 per cent in July and total employment rose to 72.4 million. That's the first time the jobless rate has been below 5 per cent since February 1960. And it's the first time ever employment has been as high as 72 million.

But Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, weren't doing handsprings over Thursday's announcement.

Said Wirtz: "The drop in unemployment from 5.3 per cent to 4.9 per cent means that 3,813,000 people are still out of work. That's an awful lot of people to be left out of a record high prosperity."

Said Meany: "With both productivity and the labor force increasing rapidly, many additional months of continued improvement are needed before an approach to full employment can be reached."

GOP To Open Office

WEIRTON — A Republican headquarters will be opened Aug. 20 at 3395 Main St., according to George Lesho, chairman of the Hancock County Republican Executive Committee.

Mrs. Stanley Kramer will be manager, and Mrs. Emil Presley will serve refreshments.

Western Beaver High School Enrollment Due To Total 740

Enrollment at Western Beaver Junior - Senior High School at Industry is expected to total 740 for the 1964-65 term, Frank A. Meredith, supervising principal of the district said today as he announced plans for the new school year.

All schools will open on Tuesday, Sept. 1. Elementary school hours will be the same as last term. Grades 1 through 6 will start classes at 9 a.m. and be dismissed at 3. Kindergarten hours at Logan School will be from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 to 3 p.m. At the Ray W. Snyder School, kindergarten classes will meet from 9:15 to 11:45 a.m. and 12:30 to 3 p.m.

Bus schedules also will be the same as last year, Meredith said. Cafeterias will be open on the first day of school in all buildings. Logan School students in Grades 1 to 5 will have an opportunity this year for the first time to purchase hot lunches at the school.

The price of lunches in all buildings will be 40 cents for an individual ticket or $1.75 for a strip of five. For students who carry their lunches and desire to buy milk, the price will be 4 cents for a half pint.

But the modern math program which was started last year in Grades 1 and 2 will be continued in Grades 3 through 6. An innovation in the new term will be introduction of Pennsylvania history in the fourth grade. One nine-week period will be devoted to the study of a unit on the history of the state.

A new system will be used this year for handling of sale of cafeteria tickets at all buildings. A weekly strip of five tickets will be sold each Friday at each building.

If for any reason a student is absent, the unused tickets may be kept until the end of the school year, when they can be redeemed for cash.

The superintendent said a price increase in cafeteria meals was necessary because the cafeterias have not been self-supporting for the last two years and the district is not receiving as much state aid as in the past.

Addition of a cafeteria at Logan School means hot lunches will be available at every school in the district. Food will be prepared in the High School and transported to Logan School.

Atty. Flowers said the scope of the project has not diminished except for some "minor" respects. The PSD is contemplating enlargement of the original plan to serve the County Children's Home if it is interested, along with Oak Glen High School.

THE FUNDS would be repaid without any increases in water rates listed in a contract signed by over 200 residents of the community some months ago.

Minimum water charge would be $6.25 monthly, although residents would still be permitted to use their private water sources if they wish.

Study Shows Longer Child-Bearing Period

LONDON (AP) — A surgeon said today that the maximum age at which women can become mothers has steadily increased in recent years.

A careful study of hospital records, Dr. Donald Frommer wrote in the British Medical Journal, reveals that mothers are often past 50 before they cease to be fertile. The average is four years later than in their grandmother's day, he said.

Dr. Frommer, a surgeon in Hertfordshire, said the reason is not known.

He suggested it might be the

Another 'Limited War'?

By a grim coincidence it has been 50 years since World War I began in Europe.

No one could have known when the first shots were fired in anger what would happen. No one knows today what will happen in Asia, where for the second time since the end of World War II the United States is confronting the Chinese People's Republic.

The circumstances are not identical with those in Korea during the Truman administration but the basic issue is the same. An Occidental power, interceding in an Asiatic civil war with one side backed by international communism, has incurred the wrath of the principal Asiatic power — Red China.

South Viet Nam and North Viet Nam are incidental to the main issue. They are nationalistic facades masking the ideological struggle between communism and capitalism, between oppression and freedom.

CHINESE COMMUNISTS, like the Russian Communists who backed North Korea at the outset of the Korean War, are not openly involved. But they are in North Viet Nam just as certainly as Americans are in South Viet Nam. They are the real antagonists.

What kind of a war will it be this time?

In all probability, it will be another "limited war" — the kind that frustrated Americans in Korea. The late Gen. Douglas MacArthur had to be relieved of his command in Korea because he could not tolerate limited war.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who has been sent to South Viet Nam to carry on a limited war against North Viet Nam and China, will have greater tolerance. But even a modern militarist who has come to maturity in the nuclear era will chafe under the restrictions of limited war.

It embodies the difference between a free-for-all fight with no holds barred and a fight conducted under Marquis of Queensbury rules, with a referee, time-keeper and judges. No real fighter likes to be restricted.

RESTRICTION goes down hard in a democracy, where the people take a hand in decision-making.

The limited war in Viet Nam already had become a campaign issue, with President Johnson accused of being too accommodating and Sen. Goldwater proposing a more dynamic policy.

But even a limited war with the Chinese People's Republic should eliminate Viet Nam as a campaign issue. As casualty lists mounted, advocating an acceleration of blood-letting would not be a likely talking point for a presidential aspirant.

Indeed, the 1952 presidential election was strongly affected by Dwight D. Eisenhower's campaign promise to go to Korea if elected to extricate the United States from a limited war that had grown too bloody for the people's taste.

Narrowing His Indictment

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has added a significant footnote to his inflammatory statement about "sensation-seeking columnists and commentators" in his speech to the Republican National Convention.

The footnote was in a letter to Boyd Lewis, who had known Gen. Eisenhower during World War II. Mr. Lewis, a newspaperman, had asked for additional comment on the San Francisco statement, suspecting that his old acquaintance hadn't really meant to indict all columnists and commentators.

It turned out that Mr. Lewis was right. "My respect and admiration for the bulk of the American press has so often been expressed publicly that it would seem almost redundant for me to have to repeat them," Gen. Eisenhower replied. . . . "It

Boondoggling On Quoddy Bay

The word "boondoggle" may come back in style. This so antagonized the House Appropriations Committee that it lopped $29 million off the War Department appropriations bill of 1956—$5 million earmarked for Quoddy and $24 million for other projects initiated without the say-so of Congress.

Power shortage in New England plus renewed attention in Canada, revived interest in a "final study"—at a cost to the United States of about $3 million.

The survey, incorporated in 1959 in a report to the (U.S.-Canadian) International Joint Commission, found the project economically justified at a cost of more than $500 million. But the commission itself, two years later, ruled out a $700 million scheme. Now, the House Rivers and Harbors sub-committee is going to hold more hearings.

When the Senate in 1956 defeated a study of Passamaquoddy, 39 to 28, the two senators from Maine were among the three Republicans who voted aye. To Republicans Quoddy has always had the smell of a fishy boondoggle—except, of course, when the proposal comes from a Republican administration, or the Republicans in question come from Maine.

cause arbitrary divisions leave them out in the cold?

Dividing us up into a splinter-party system wouldn't help, either. It would make things worse. Nobody can get anything done in that system.

But telling us we must categorize ourselves in one of two points of the political spectrum doesn't help either.

WE CANNOT be classified. We are pro-licons, lipocrons, conliros, sorplicons, you name it. Our political coloration is as mixed as our ancestry, our tastes in literature and our versions of what is enjoyable.

We like it this way. We think this is part of freedom. But it puts us at a disadvantage when it's time for others to enter into their pens and be locked up.

There we are on the outside, peering in at the inmates, who are peering out at us and murmuring dark accusations against our Americanism because we cannot feel comfortable with Gov. Wallace, Gen. Walker, Walter Reuther, Jimmy Hoffa, or even you, dear reader.

We're mavericks — rootin', tootin' pro-licons, or would you rather call us sno-cilrops? Sounds worse.

Odd Facts

One of the biggest arguments in favor of college education lies in the fact that close to 90 per cent of American corporation executives today are college-trained.

The familiar term "whirling dervish" refers to a world-wide Moslem religious order of mystics devoted to religious music and song.

Could this be the reason so many Americans are indifferent about voting; be-

The United Nations Goes On Trial

By DAVID LAWRENCE

The Red Chinese government has started a war against the United States. President Johnson, as commander-in-chief of the armed forces, has ordered military action in retaliation. He has asked Congress to pass a resolution authorizing him to take "all necessary measures to repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression." The resolution also would authorize the President "to take all necessary steps, including the use of armed force," to help those nations covered by the Southeast Asia Treaty which may request assistance to defend their freedom.

Since American naval vessels were attacked during the last few days in international waters by North Vietnamese ships — supplied and directed by Red China — the grievance is not only against the government of North Vietnam but also against the Peiping government.

United States Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, in his speech on Wednesday to the Security Council of the United Nations, said the attacks on the ships were "part of a larger pattern with a larger purpose."

THE UNITED STATES has acted to repel what it calls "deliberate aggression." Under Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, an individual government, alone or in cooperation with other governments, may employ measures of "self-defense," and these may be carried on "until the Security Council has taken measures necessary to maintain international peace and security."

The U.N. Charter also provides that any member nation which exercises its right of self-defense must immediately report such measures to the Security Council.

The United States government complied with the provisions of the charter by formally submitting the matter to the council.

The two unprovoked attacks on American naval vessels were really acts of war. The responses by the United States in the air and on the sea were natural acts of war in self-defense.

The resolution before both houses of Congress amounts to a declaration of a state of war as existing in Southeast Asia, where the interests of the United States have been militarily menaced.

In defense, U.S. aircraft already have bombed bases in North Vietnam from which the attacks on American naval vessels were launched.

THE NEXT MOVE is up to the United Nations. In the meantime, the United States will go ahead with any military measures deemed necessary to protect its position. The procedure is well established by international law. The U.N., of course, will endeavor to set up at once a machinery of mediation in the hope of bringing about a settlement of the dispute.

Why did Red China decide to test American firmness at this time? Was it believed that, because of the presidential political campaign in this country, the incumbent administration would hesitate to take any steps amounting to war and that the rival political party itself would not dare to demand such drastic action?

There could be no greater miscalculation of true Americanism. Other governments in the past have made the same mistake, only to discover that the United States overnight takes military action and gets the support of both political parties.

It's the U.N. which will be on trial now to prove whether it's an organization capable or incapable of settling a major dispute. If the Security Council proves powerless because of a Soviet veto or obstruction from any other nation, the United States is free to continue the war. When the Communist aggression in Korea started in 1950, the U.N. authorized an international military force to be formed.

THE UNITED STATES military chiefs were given command of all the troops and the responsibility for the conduct of the war in behalf of the U.N. The Korean War ended in 1953 with an armistice agreement, but no peace treaty ever has been signed.

In the event that the U.N. is prevented by veto in the Security Council from taking military measures, if necessary, similar to those employed in the Korean War, the United States is authorized under Article 51 of the U.N. Charter to act alone or set up a "collective defense" with the aid of the military forces of other countries.

Red China's government is seeking now to test American resoluteness and has had any idea that the United States would be hesitant to employ military force, this misconception has been dispelled. Nor is there anything to be gained by the Peiping government in expanding the war, though it's conceivable an attempt might be made by the Red Chinese to heighten the crisis for a while by possibly stepping up its activities around the islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

American military forces in the Far East unquestionably have been alerted to meet such diversionary maneuvers.

'I've NEVER Seen Him So Happy'

U.S. Attacked, Then Asked For Money

By VICTOR RIESEL

CAIRO, U. A. R.

The other evening I mingled with former Mau Mau leaders, machine-gun wielders, jungle fighters and bomb-throwing revolutionaries.

Some were in togas and other national dress. Some in conservative business suits. Now they are world leaders, heads of Africa's states.

They had come to Cairo for the meeting of the Organization of African Unity (OAU) in the U.N. auditorium of the heavily-gated Arab League headquarters building.

Of all the former revolutionaries, ex-Mau Mau supreme commander, bewiskered, skull-capped Jomo Kenyatta, prime minister of Kenya, got the loudest reception. He bowed regally, for he is so eminently respectable now that the Kenya Public Service Commission has hired a beauty contest winner, Miss Freedom Uhuru of 1963, as his social secretary. She is to run cocktail parties at his country and town residences. That's a long way from the jungle days.

OTHER LEGENDARY men around the conference table were equally dignified, though they had stopped shooting less than a year ago. They had put down their guns but not their propaganda. They were still blasting away at "neo-imperialism" — meaning the U. S. and our allies.

But leaders of the very same nations which were voting for resolutions attacking our nation and our allies are the same who are asking for hundreds of millions of dollars from the U. S. government.

One of the first men to walk into the Arab League conference hall and sit near the big round table was Tanganyika-Zanzibar's first vice president, ex-sailor Abeid Karume. His most recent 25 speeches have praised Communist nations and have attacked the U. S.

Yet the Tanganyika-Zanzibar government seeks our help and private investments from U. S. businessmen.

AROUND THE HANDBOME conference table there also was Gen. Ibrahim Abboud, military dictator of the Sudan. He has just returned from Peking, where he attacked us and called one of our allies a "cancer." Yet his country has received $89.34 million from the U. S. since March 31, 1958. And he is asking for more in the next fiscal year.

A few chairs away was Ghana's President Kwame Nkrumah. He had brought a large delegation which had helped fill some of the luxury hotels along the Nile. They drove around Cairo in Cadillacs. They rolled up to the Nile Hilton and the Omar Khayam hotels laden with big bundles of expensive purchases. And they were not spending their own funds because Ghanaian money is the only national currency unacceptable anywhere on this continent outside Ghana's borders. Yet they had plenty of foreign exchange to spend during the hours they were not concentrating on attacking the U. S. and its allies.

Yet the U. S. is pouring more than $50 million into massive Ghanaian projects.

SITTING CLOSE by Mr. Nkrumah was President Sekou Toure of Guinea. He was pro-Communist. Then he broke with them for many reasons which range all the way from a Soviet-inspired general strike attempt in his country to the U.S.S.R.'s dispatch of snow plows as aid to his small bush country. Now he has some kind words for capitalism. Last February he asked the U. S. for $30 million in addition to the $15 million already granted. Yet he, too, joined in the general attack on the U. S. and the British.

Further along the round table was Prime Minister Balewa. As recent as June 9, one of Mr. Balewa's colleagues, the premier of Eastern Nigeria, Dr. Okpara, expressed his disappointment to U. S. Ambassador Mathews over "insignificant contributions" by private U. S. investors in the development of this region.

Yet Nigeria's federal prime minister came to the conference of African states here and voted right down the line against just this sort of investment, which is generally called a "neo-imperialist invasion" on this continent.

REQUESTS for private U. S. funds were made recently by Mr. Mwanyumba, Keny's minister for works, communications and power. On June 30 in a public speech he said the Kenya government was "doing everything it could to protect overseas investments." He invited the Americans, British and Germans in.

But the old jungle fighter, Prime Minister Jomo Kenyatta went

Radar Tower Hauled For Scrap Heap

NANTUCKET, Mass. (AP)—The last of a luckless trio of Texas Tower radar platforms off the Atlantic Coast was under tow to a New Jersey scrap heap today.

Texas Tower III was stationed 30 miles off Nantucket on a shoal 50 feet deep. Ten tons of explosive tore it loose from its three giant legs Thursday afternoon. The 6,000-ton platform dropped to the ocean with a mighty splash but it had been packed with flotation material to keep it from sinking. Lipsett division of the Luria Brothers of New York will salvage the scrap metal from the tower.

Demolition of the tower, one of two built in Portland, Maine, marked the end of a $60-million Air Force project that cost 29 lives. Fourteen Air Force crewmen and an equal number of civilian workers were killed when a tower plunged into the ocean 70 miles off New Jersey in a 1961 storm.

The first tower, erected 110 miles off Cape Cod, sank after salvage attempts last September. One civilian workman died when a cable snapped during construction.

Parents Need $1,000 For Trip Of Band

Oak Glen Band Parents lack about $1,000 of a total of $8,290 needed to send the high school band to the New York World's Fair, it was announced at a meeting Thursday night in the school.

The band is to leave Aug. 17 and return Aug. 24, and will play at the West Virginia Pavilion while at the fair.

A profit of $1,348 was reported from the band carnival held July 9-10 at Clark Field in Newell.

The fund-raising activities will continue with a spaghetti supper Aug. 15 from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Newell fire hall. Tickets are being sold now by band parents.

The group will operate a booth in the New Cumberland Lions Club's Community Fair Aug. 27-29, selling homemade ice cream, pie and cake.

The band will march in a parade in Cleveland Aug. 25 and perform at Kennywood Park near Pittsburgh Aug. 29.

Mrs. Alvin Reed of Chester, president, presided. There will be a special meeting Monday night at the school for musicians attending the fair, and other officials, and next regular meeting is Sept. 14.

Driver Fined, Jailed On Crash In East End

Frank M. Duncan, 29, of 1235 St. George St., cited July 23 after an East End traffic crash, was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and given a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit when he pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff also gave Duncan a suspended fine of $25 on a charge of possessing an open container of alcoholic beverage in a public place. Duncan was ordered to pay the costs.

Officers charged that Duncan's car missed the right-angle turn at Pennsylvania Ave. and Elizabeth St. and swerved onto the lawn at Neville School.

Race Track Robbery Investigation Goes On

West Virginia State Police still are probing the robbery of an estimated $20,000 in coins the weekend of July 4 from a safe at Waterford Park Race Track in Hancock County.

Cpl. C. W. Tighe of the Weirton barracks said the Federal Bureau of Investigation remains active in the investigation with State Police officers.

The eight-foot vault was opened skillfully by drilling through the top from the floor above at the track office. Entering the vault, the burglars neatly and accurately drilled through the front of the safe, hitting the plungers and opening the door to get to the loot.

Cpl. Tighe said a couple of partial fingerprints were lifted but no arrests have been made yet.

Crops Seen Good In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio this year should come close to matching crop yields of past years and maybe even exceed them, an Ohio State University extension agronomist believes.

Dr. Orlo Musgrave made that observation Thursday in reporting on crop conditions in the Buckeye State.

Musgrave, who directs soil testing at Ohio State, says recent rainfalls over most sections of Ohio relieved drought conditions generally.

"There is no great concern over crop conditions in Ohio," Musgrave said. He added that some spots are still moisture deficient but some moisture during the next week or two would guarantee good yields.

Musgrave classified this year's corn crop as good and said small grain crops already have been harvested and the yield is at least 5 to 10 percent above normal.

He said hay crops are "about normal" and added that the prospects look good for soybeans. Musgrave said sugar beets, tomatoes and tobacco crops also "look good."

Senior Citizens' Picnic Draws 134

Approximately 134 attended a picnic of the Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon at Thompson Park. J. W. Barrett was chairman.

T. F. Scheffer, program chairman, presented a talent show with 10 members participating.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett won first prize for a duet and Mrs. Hazel Nichols won second prize for a monologue. Mrs. Neil McIntosh, youngest member, received a prize.

Other participants were Arthur Hollins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Scheffer. Judges were Frank Shone, John Canne and Sam Watters.

A catered dinner was served and Mrs. Daisy McCain was chairman of the dinner committee.

Next meeting is Thursday afternoon at 1 at the old IBOP Building on W. 6th St., instead of the Parish Hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, which is being painted.

Fairgrounds Project Continued By Group

LISBON — The Junior Fair Board continued its fairgrounds improvement project Thursday evening with a 13-member work crew.

They completed painting the 4-H building then moved to the fence near the grandstand. Fair board members, I. F. Skeels, Lisbon, and William Werner, Salem, were present.

Robert Hippely, Salem, junior board president, called another work detail for Tuesday, Aug. 18, and made duty assignments for the Fair Aug. 26-30.

The junior board will purchase three picnic tables and place them under the big trees in the race track infield. The tables and paint already applied represent an expenditure of about $80.

U.S.

swept aloft from Hickam Air Force base Thursday, heading toward undisclosed bases in Asia.

Thursday afternoon, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara called a news conference at the Pentagon and said that while he assumes Peking may send some combat aircraft to help North Viet Nam, there have been no indication of any substantial Chinese military movements in the last few days.

What's more, McNamara said there is no evidence the Chinese helped the North Vietnamese in the attacks on the destroyers Maddox and Turner Joy.

Still a regiment of North Viet Nam's infantrymen faced Saigon's reinforced 1st Division at the Ben Hai River border Thursday night. And if China sends combat aircraft to North Viet Nam, they will be the first such planes for the small Red nation which has been pressing a guerrilla war on U.S.-supported South Viet Nam.

China took an ominous stance in the wake of the American strike. It declared "U.S. imperialism" had gone over the brink of war and pledged "the Chinese people will absolutely not sit idly by" while North Viet Nam was being "subjected to aggression."

Thursday, Peking was silent, although two of its satellites took to the air — North Viet Nam to claim its batteries had shot down eight American planes in Wednesday's assault and North Korea to promise full support to North Viet Nam against U.S. "provocative armed aggression."

In a separate broadcast, Ha Noi Radio said the American pilot captured by one of its anti-aircraft units had been identified as Lt. J.G. Everett Alvarez Jr., 26, who flew his sortie from the carrier Constellation.

McNamara has said two U.S. planes were shot down and a third damaged. He said efforts will be made to win freedom for Alvarez, listed as missing by the Navy along with Lt. J.G. Richard C. Sather, also 26. Alvarez is from San Jose, Calif., and Sather from Pomona, Calif.

Earlier Thursday, the Pentagon boss went to Capitol Hill and outlined for congressional committees steps taken to be ready to counter any sudden blows in Southeast Asia. He said reinforcements of U.S. ships, planes and men in the area "will stay in position as long as required."

The committee voted quick action of a joint resolution authorizing the President to take whatever measures are deemed necessary to stem Communist aggression in the area.

Although there have been murmurs of disapproval — notably from Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore. — there never has been any doubt that Congress will approve the President's request. Both the Senate and House are expected to do so today.

Even though a lull has set in, usually sensitive Wall Street was jittery enough Thursday to send the stock market to its sharpest decline since the assassination last November of President John F. Kennedy.

Before the current crisis developed, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant made a date to visit Washington. He kept it Thursday and while talking to President Johnson suggested a new peace-keeping formula for Southeast Asia.

Thant declined to make the details public, telling newsmen: "I've discussed this on a confidential basis with the President and the secretary of state."

The Burmese diplomat also said he does not believe the U.N. Security Council can be "usefully employed" at this time to settle the crisis — a view with which U.S. officials agree.

Young Driver Arrested For Hit-Run Crash

Police filed a hit-and-run charge today against Elm R. Wallace, 20, of Clark St., East End, who allegedly fled on foot after his 1955 two-door sedan knocked down a section of city-owned guardrails near the top of Lisbon St. Hill this morning at 3:50.

Police said Wallace was found asleep on the lawn of a Thompson Ave. home at 7:57 a. m. A householder notified officers, who linked him with the Lisbon St. crash four hours earlier through the registration of the car abandoned at the scene.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Problems Of Bedwetting Discussed

Over the years that I have been writing this column, I have received a number of letters reporting two or more children of age, of the same family, who are bedwetters. I recall one letter that reported four bedwetters in a family. In these multiple cases, common sense would suggest a careful and thorough medical checkup at a clinic or hospital, or by a physician. After physical causes have been ruled out for a chronic bedwetter, the hope of cure lies in a psychological direction.

With two or more bedwetters in the same family, over five or six years of age, there could be all sorts of non-physical causes.

A mother writes from Michigan: "Would appreciate any advice on helping two of my girls (9 and 6) to overcome bedwetting.

"BOTH HAVE had physical checkups and both have had this problem always — no period of complete dryness and then wetting again. Both sleep very soundly, but older one now awakens for a change of p.j.'s, etc. Have never made issue of problem (have four other children). We use draw-sheets and have them use bath towels, rather than strip beds in the middle of the night.

"No outfit worn nervousness. Both good students and well-liked. Older one anxious to overcome this. Both drink little after evening meal."

My reply in part: I infer from your letter that you don't shame or abuse these girls for their bedwetting. I like your objective attitude. Let me suggest that these girls have a complete physical checkup at a hospital. In the meanwhile, try to think through ways to help the eldest daughter sleep dry all night.

Should the younger girl recover first, the older might be greatly discouraged, even suffer from jealousy. After the older girl recovers, the younger might easily do so, too.

INDEED, AFTER the older girl is victorious she might, of her own accord, not only help the next younger girl but also the other younger children to sleep dry. You should probably make no effort to train the younger children now in night contingency. If one of them should become a dry sleeper, be sure not to hold him or her up to the other children as a model.

Inner tensions can contribute to the problem. Anything you parents can do to help these children cultivate companionable and happy relations with you parents, with one another and with their playmates, should be to the good. Most of all, you need to try to build up in these older girls, especially the eldest, feelings of self-regard and worthwhileness.

Before beginning a special program, talk in private with the eldest girl, assuring her you parents are going to try to help her. First win her wholehearted cooperation. Never discuss the matter with relatives and neighbors. Proceed as follows: Secure a good alarm clock. Help her set it as she goes to bed, to ring after a few hours. Help her guess when.

BE ON hand as it rings and make sure it awakens her. Help her guess how long to set it ahead again, and so on. Encourage her to experiment on the longest possible period, hoping she will soon thus call herself up often enough to keep dry all night and eventually not need to get up at all.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: What type of woman do men fall for? You are the expert, so please tell me.

I've always been under the impression that men want to be boss. They go for women who make them feel important, cater to them and give them their way.

Yet a big horsey broad in this office came to work wearing a diamond the size of an apricot—evidence that she has snagged a guy any of us would have given a front tooth for.

This girl is bossy, domineering and loud. She never lets her fiance finish a sentence. She corrects his English in front of everybody and butts in to supply just the right word when he stops for breath.

When he bought her a Valentine's Day gift she returned it to the store and got something else with the money.

To put it in a nutshell, this beast broke all the rules but she got the guy. Will you tell me, please, Ann Landers—what goes, anyway?—BYSTANDER.

Kennedy Unclear On Future; Likes Government Role

CLEVELAND (AP)—Future political plans for Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy are undecided but his primary interest is to "stay in government."

He did not elaborate on the remark, made Thursday at a news conference after he previewed the John F. Kennedy Exhibition in Cleveland Public Hall. The exhibit runs today through Monday and is free to the public.

"I have made it clear to President Johnson that I am through after November," Kennedy said. "I have no plans to remain in the executive branch of government." Kennedy also has said he does not plan to run for the U.S. Senate from New York State.

President Johnson last week eliminated all his cabinet members as possible vice presidential running mates. Kennedy also said he would not accept a "boom" movement for the vice presidency by his supporters.

The press conference was interrupted for several moments by Mrs. Simon Teichman of South Euclid, who stood up in the midst of reporters and asked Kennedy to help get her relatives out of Czechoslovakia.

She slipped by security guards and took a seat with newsmen. When Kennedy Library officials moved in to take her away, the attorney general said, "No, it's all right." He came down off the platform, grasped her hand and said his aide, Ed Guthman, would try to help her.

Mother, Child Drown In Ohio River Mishap

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Waves and an undertow created by a passing towboat carried a 33-year-old Belmont County mother of five and her young daughter out to deep water in the Ohio River Thursday evening. They both drowned.

Mrs. Ida Mae Linquist of Shady Side and Ellen Marie, 5, had been wading about waist-high in the area near Shady Side which is marked off for swimming. Another daughter, Mary, 14, said her mother attempted to grab hold of a buoy which marked a reef, but missed it just barely.

Cleveland Drowns

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Harbor Patrol and the Coast Guard continued a search today for the body of Joseph Pavol, 53, who disappeared while swimming in Lake Erie Thursday. A man who was swimming with Pavol told police Pavol swam out 150 feet from the West Ninth Street Pier toward the breakwall and disappeared.

2 Auto Fires Call Firemen

Two autos were damaged by fires of undetermined origin Thursday afternoon.

The motor of a 1956 auto owned by Joseph Smoot, 1183 Harker Ave., was damaged extensively when it caught fire at 2:39 p.m. at Cuban Alley and Pennsylvania Ave.

A passing motorist used a blanket to smother an engine fire in a car operated by Doris Taubert of Annesley Rd. at 5:09 p.m. at W. 6th St. and Persimmon Alley.

Firemen said the motorist had smothered the flames before they arrived. There was heavy damage to the carburetor and slight damage to the wiring and paint.

East End firemen were called to Mulberry and St. George Sts. at 5:15 p.m. to flush a large quantity of gasoline which had leaked from a parked steel-laden tractor - trailer rig.

Firemen said they located the driver, Kenneth Yost, 460 Mulberry St., and had him move the rig, owned by Humes Transfer Co. of Steubenville.

Commenting on the stability of the marriages, the psychiatrists suggested the couples had mutually passive and aggressive personality traits that enabled them to achieve a "working equilibrium" in the marital relationship. This delicate balance was upset, they said, when the intervention of the child became a threat.

The preliminary findings were based on a detailed study of 12 families in a predominantly middle class suburban area in Massachusetts.

The study was reported by Drs. John E. Snell, Richard J. Rosenwald, and Ames Robey, Framingham, Mass., in the current Archives of General Psychiatry, published by the American Medical Association.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Willson's Many Armageddons

"How old do I feel?" said Meredith Willson.

This original giant of corn ("The Music Man," "The Unsinkable Mollie Brown") and, throughout this corn-starved summer, a series of TV specials called "Star Parade"; is 62 years old.

But this Alan Gill trouser, one quickly notes, are trim as a needle, the Willson eye is clear as a polka dot, and his spirit is that of a class president at the senior prom.

"YOU'VE GOT to remember," he said, "that I'm two years younger than the year and my coming to Broadway with 'Music Man,' 'Mollie' and 'Here's Love' is the culmination of many careers."

"I look at things through these particular eyes pretty much the way I did in my flute-playing days, only I've been through a few Armageddons since."

"Many times I've fought the good fight for the all-or-nothing-at-all, and a man at 62 has a feeling of accomplishment he didn't have in his youth."

"When I played my first solo with John Philip Sousa, that was an Armageddon. My first flute solo for Toscanini was an all-out battle. In 1929, when I first conducted the Seattle Symphony, or later, when I wrote the first original musical comedy for KFAC in Los Angeles—an Armageddon."

"WE'D READ the scripts through on mike. And that was it. We felt very put upon. We thought it was terribly hard work. Oh, my!"

The subject reverted to age and sentiment and sentiment's sworn enemies.

"I think it's more fun," he said, "not to worry about being sentimental or about loving your fellow man."

"I wish I were 40 years younger, and you know why? When these folks of today who think that anything new is perforce decadent—and I mean the folks who follow the hard line of existentialism, believe only in today-for-today and evildabbling—well, I regret I am not younger so that I can sit back and see what attitude these people have when THEY hit three score and ten."

If you want to brown chicken in just a few tablespoons of butter or olive oil (or a mixture of the two) use a heavy skillet and low heat; allow plenty of time!

New Midland Coach Addresses Rotarians

Joseph Cochran, new football coach at Lincoln High School, spoke at the dinner meeting of the Midland Rotary Club Thursday night at Murphys Hill pavilion.

James Migliore, program chairman, introduced Cochran. Sal Reggari will be program chairman at next Thursday's meeting at 6:30 p.m. in the pavilion. Frank Meredith is president.

The council voted to change the minimum age rule for club membership from "10 years old Jan. 1" to "10 years old Jan. 1 or in the fourth grade."

Drought Hit Offered Help

LISBON — Columbian County is among 37 Ohio counties designated drought disaster areas by the secretary of agriculture, and limited funds are available for emergency conservation measures, according to J. Glenn Bates, chairman of the county committee of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Bates said farmers may be eligible for cost-sharing if severe drought in the summer and fall of 1963 or early spring of 1964 created new conservation problems on their land.

Agricultural conservation program F-4A practices are available to re-establish permanent vegetative cover (new seedings or older stands) destroyed or seriously damaged by drought.

This is to prevent serious wind or water erosion, Bates said.

Normally, ACP cost-sharing must be requested before any ACP practice is begun, but under this emergency program, farmers may now request cost-sharing on re-establishment measures already begun or completed.

Measures already performed may be eligible for cost-sharing if the farmer applies not later than Tuesday, Aug. 18, at the county ASC office in the Gallia Building here.

After this date, Bates said, F-4A practices must be requested before the practice is started. Funds are limited and requests should be made promptly, he advised. All work should be completed by early September.

4-H Rally, Advisors Dinner Are Planned

LISBON — Columbian County's annual 4-H Rally will be held Monday night, Sept. 28, and the advisors recognition banquet will be Thursday night, Oct. 8, at Crestview High School.

Planning began here Thursday when the County 4-H Council met at the Extension Service office with the Rev. Frank Hare, Hanoverton R.D. 1, in charge as chairman. The location for the rally is indefinite.

Rev. Hare appointed a committee to nominate persons for the council, and will name another committee to study the present 4-H enrollment program in the county.

The council voted to change the minimum age rule for club membership from "10 years old Jan. 1" to "10 years old Jan. 1 or in the fourth grade."

Osteopathic Hospital
Treats 3 Youngsters

Three youngsters were treated at the Osteopathic Hospital Thursday for minor injuries suffered while playing.

Daniel Lockhart, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lockhart, 1050 Vine St., sustained cuts on the back of his head when he fell on the curb in front of the home.

Thomas Campbell, 8, son of Mrs. Hellen Campbell of Irish Ridge Rd., cut his left foot while cycling.

Jeffrey Hawley, 3, of Ravenna suffered a cut on his lower right eye lid in a fall.

When you want to cook a thrifty chuck beef steak on the outdoor grill, marinate the meat in French dressing for about an hour; then apply unseasoned meat tenderizer (according to manufacturer's directions) and you're ready to go.

The council voted to change the minimum age rule for club membership from "10 years old Jan. 1" to "10 years old Jan. 1 or in the fourth grade."

Violence Mars Strike At Middletown Facility

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—A special police task force has been set up to protect bus-taking workers to the strike-bound Raymond Paper Bag Co.

Violence flared outside the paper bag firm Thursday for the second day when pickets threw stones at a bus on the way to pick up workers. Some bus windows were broken and its windshield cracked.

No injuries were reported and there were no arrests. Police Chief James Howerton announced the formation of the task force after the incident.

The strike began July 20 because of a dispute about proposed work rule changes. Some 260 members of Local 310 of the AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers are out on the strike.

Planning Commission Sets Session Monday

The City Planning Commission has scheduled a meeting Monday night at 7:30 in Mayor Merrill D. Hall's office, Don Eckert, chairman, said today.

A contract signed recently by city officials for preparation of a "master plan" by Carroll V. Hill Associates of Pittsburgh and Columbus has been returned from the Ohio Department of Development, where it was sent for approval and signing, Eckert said.

A representative of the planning concern will be in East Liverpool Monday through Wednesday in continuing work on preparation of the plan. Approval of the contract by the state agency means the city will be required to remit the first installment of funds already appropriated as its share of the project, Eckert added.

County Courts Collect
$5,297 During July

LISBON — The three Columbian County Courts at Lisbon, Salem and East Palestine collected $5,297 during July, Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey reports.

Sixty-two civil cases and 336 criminal cases were filed last month in the three areas.

Stacey gave the following breakdown of distributions:

County treasurer — $3,667 from fines and costs; state treasurer — $1,413 including $1,393 representing 45 per cent of fines in State Highway Patrol cases, and sheriff, constable and city police — $217 in fees.

"Now we can say the coming weeks will be decisive."

Khanh was known to be planning a field trip Saturday to the northern provinces of South Viet Nam.

Censorship provisions were not spelled out in the decree, but it said that all press, radio, movies, theater and publications would be censored.

Khanh told the newsmen that "internally, we face a Communist army in our territory of 150,000 men, 34,000 of whom are regular Communist troops."

In addition, he said, there are new threats from Communist North Viet Nam, Cambodia and the Chinese Communists, who he claimed had begun to station troops in North Viet Nam.

"For these reasons," he said, "we see clearly that we may be invaded or attacked at any time."

Judge Banishes
2 Pittsburghers
For Intoxication

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered two Pittsburgh men to leave East Liverpool "in the next 30 minutes" as a condition to suspension of fines of $10 and costs in intoxication charges filed by police, who said they were found asleep in a parked car in front of a Dresden Ave. business place at 2:30 this morning.

Officers identified the two as John Elmer Najanick, 25, and Thomas Burke, 29. They were taken into custody by Patrolmen David Mumaw and Howard Frontz, who said they found the pair asleep in an auto in front of McDonald's Antique Shop on Dresden Ave.

Patrolman Frontz said the officers' attention first was centered on the car by the fact the trunk lid was open. Investigating, they found Najanick and Burke asleep, he said. Two empty quart beer bottles were lying outside the car and there also was a case of beer in the car with two bottles missing, he said.

Najanick admitted the two began drinking Thursday in Pittsburgh. They were en route to Youngstown with a friend when a tire went flat, he said. The friend flagged a passing car to take the spare tire to be fixed and Najanick and Burke went to sleep to await his return, he said.

The patrol said it still hasn't determined who was driving the 1965 Ford Mustang in which John A. Pallerino, 18, was killed and Dale Klingensmith, 28, president of Columbian Village Council, Robert MacGillis, 38, of Canfield and Anthony Bertone, 16, of Mahoningtown, Pa., were injured.

Officers said they hope to question the three men today after being unable to talk to them yesterday because of their injuries. Klingensmith and Bertone are in Salem City Hospital and MacGillis is in South Side Hospital at Youngstown.

Preliminary information, the patrol said, showed the car, owned by the Ford Motor Co., was one of several loaned to members of the Columbian Kiwanis Club for a "tryout." The auto had been loaned to Klingensmith, officers said.

Klingensmith and MacGillis had picked up the two youths at The Ranch on Route 14. The auto overturned several times after leaving Route 14, about a mile and a half east of the intersection with Route 7.

X-Ray Unit In Salem;
408 Tested In Lisbon

LISBON — The Ohio Department of Health cruiser is in Salem today, concluding the second week of a three-week visit to Columbian County to offer free chest X-rays to all adults.

Mrs. Theda Thornton of the State Tuberculosis Control Clinic said 408 persons passed through the cruiser at the courthouse from 11 to 5 p.m. Thursday.

The unit will be in operation from 3 to 9 p.m. today in Salem and return Monday for a three-day stand. Scheduled last is the East Palestine Street Fair Aug. 13-15.

Swimming Meeting Set For Columbian

EAST PALESTINE — The second annual Columbian County swimming meeting will be held Saturday at the Firestone Park pool in Columbian with teams from Lisbon, East Palestine, Columbian and Salem participating.

Preliminaries will begin at 9 a.m. with finals scheduled to start at 8:30 p.m.

The Palestine team will conclude its season Tuesday night when it entertains Lisbon at the City Park pool. Palestine defeated Lisbon by three points in a meet two weeks ago at the county seat.

Palestine Street Fair Will Open Thursday

EAST PALESTINE — Final preparations are being made for the 34th annual East Palestine Street Fair, which will be held Thursday through Saturday under the auspices of American Legion Post 31.

The fair will be held on N. Market St., featuring displays, rides and amusements.

A mobile X-ray unit will be at the fair all three nights for free chest X-rays for those 18 and over.

The combined garden clubs in the city are sponsoring a flower show Friday and Saturday at the Legion home.

Nam boats and bases was in self defense.

The U.S. call for the council session amounts to reporting before the Security Council, not asking it to take any action now, the U.S. officials said.

Thus Thant's opinion, they stated, is in accord with Washington's view on the Security Council's immediate role. U.N. reports indicated both North and South Viet Nam countries would be invited to be on hand in Security Council consideration of the case.

Thant did differ with the U.S. position in saying he favors another 14-nation Geneva conference on Southeast Asia. The Reds endorse that idea. The United States says that rather than having another Geneva conference now, it would be better for the Communists to start living up to the agreements made at the last one.

U.S. Sources ReportNo Chinese Air Moves

HONG KONG (AP) — American military intelligence sources in Hong Kong said today they had nothing to substantiate reports from Nationalist Chinese military sources that Red China sent about 100 Soviet-built MIG fighters to Hanoi Thursday to reinforce the North Vietnamese air force.

The Hong Kong sources also said there appeared to be no foundation, on the basis of available U.S. intelligence reports, to Taipei reports of "ferocious air redeployment" in the southwest China provinces bordering on North Viet Nam.

Earlier, U.S. intelligence sources in Hong Kong had described as "highly inflated" Chinese Nationalist reports that large Chinese Communist army units had been shifted from central China to the southern border provinces.

"There has been some activity in the border provinces but nothing resembling mass movement of troops," one source said.

The Nationalist sources said their information came from intelligence dispatches which also reported that the Communist Chinese had reinforced some of their own air units in Kwangsi and Yunnan provinces, just

8 Of 22 Remit On Surfacing

Payment has been received from only eight of the 22 neighborhood groups which petitioned for low-cost street surfacing in the city's annual summer program. Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said today.

The deadline for the remittances falls tonight, so payments should be made as soon as possible, the director said.

In an announcement Monday, the director requested the petitioning groups to remit certified checks made payable either to the City of East Liverpool or the contractor, the Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton.

No definite date has been set for the start of the work. City officials said they are attempting to arrange a "mutually agreeable" date with the contractor.

The Canton firm was given the contract a few weeks ago on its low bid of 34.8 cents per square yard for 12,000 square yards of the surfacing.

It is the third consecutive year for the program. The city pays half the cost out of income tax revenues.

Neighborhood groups were asked to collect the funds due for the improvement, then obtain certified checks at a bank for payment to the city or the contractor. The checks may be delivered to Vodrey's office on the main floor of City Hall.

Boy Modernizes Theft Of Gasoline From Car

DELaware, Ohio (AP) — "Modernization," the Ohio Highway Patrol officer said with a sigh.

The patrol's Delaware post had picked up a juvenile Thursday night for siphoning gasoline from cars parked at the Delaware County Fairgrounds. The youth was using a battery-operated pump.

The Chamber of Deputies Thursday night followed Senate approval and voted 344-338 for Premier Aldo Moro's four-party coalition and its program.

Moro's major problem is Italy's economic slump. But the Viet Nam situation took the spotlight Thursday night as he made support of the United States part of the confidence test.

$100,000 Damage Set In Bellefontaine Blaze

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio (AP) — Fire destroyed the Watkins Farm Supply Co. and damaged the Bellefontaine Plating and Manufacturing Co. late Thursday night.

Police at the scene figured the damage at approximately $100,000. There were no serious injuries.

Democrats also renominated Sen. Albert Gore for a third term. He won easily from three political unknowns but faces a determined Republican bid in November.

Dan Kuykendall was unopposed in the Republican primary but has been campaigning for months against Gore.

Howard Baker Jr., whose late father was a long term congressman, steamrolled nominal opposition for the right to face Bass in the general election.

Bass indicated he did not feel his civil rights bill vote hurt his campaign for the two years remaining of the term of the late Sen. Estes Kefauver. But his opponents hammered away at that issue. He said he considered the heavy vote for him an endorsement of his record, which has followed closely the programs of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

With 2521 of 2702 precincts reporting, Bass had 300,780 votes

Man To Face Lesser Count On Wounding

An East End man who allegedly knifed a Wellsville resident in a fracas early Wednesday will face a misdemeanor charge of assault and battery rather than a felony count of assault with a dangerous weapon that was filed originally in Municipal Court.

John Holland, 45, of 1240 Pennsylvania Ave. is scheduled for a hearing Tuesday at 9 a.m. before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on the lesser charge. The court Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark for the reduction in the charge and cut Holland's bond from $1,000 to $500.

Lloyd Fielding, 52, of 1033 Commerce St., Wellsville, the man allegedly cut by Holland, also will face an assault and battery charge. Holland signed the affidavit against Fielding Wednesday.

Both men were before the judge this morning, but the two cases were continued after Fielding requested time to obtain counsel. Holland is represented by Atty. W. S. Foulks. Holland pleaded guilty this morning on the lesser charge, but sentencing was deferred.

Police said Fielding was cut about the right temple and scalp by a paring knife wielded by Holland early Wednesday in a fight in Holland's home. Holland said Fielding struck him on the head with a beer bottle. Authorities said each of the men declared he was defending himself against the other.

2 Rabbis Fast

Judge In Florida Frees Jailed Clergy In 'Sit-In'

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Two rabbis, who were jailed Monday along with seven other clergymen on a three-year-old sit-in charge, got out Thursday night and headed straight for the dinner table.

They said they had been fasting for the four days.

Each ate a big steak, and they were still sitting at the table when the seven other clergymen left the usually segregated hotel dining room for a news conference.

"It was the best fast I ever had," said Rabbi Israel Dresner of Springfield, N.J.

He and Rabbi Martin Freedman of Paterson, N.J., said the fasting had been a personal protest against racial injustice.

The clergymen — six whites and three Negroes — were released from jail Thursday night by the same judge that had found them guilty of unlawful assembly in 1961 during a "freedom ride" testing an Interstate Commerce Commission order wiping out segregation at transportation terminals.

Mrs. Cope will be at the secretary's office from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except Sunday, beginning Monday, Aug. 17. She reminded farmers that 6 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 18, is the deadline for entering livestock, swine, sheep and poultry.

The annual election of the Board of Directors will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 7, in the secretary's office.

The judge, in effect, threw us out of jail," said the Rev. John W. Collier of Newark, N.J., Negro pastor of the Israel Memorial AME Church. "He said we were not needed in Tallahassee. He said we were needed in the North to quell riots."

The clergymen, still in blue denim uniforms, were taken from jail to the courtroom late in the day. Municipal Judge John Rudd read an order reversing a previous decision on a petition for mitigation of sentence.

He reduced the 60-day sentence, which the clergymen had chosen over $500 fines, to the time they already had served. The surprise action ended three years of fruitless appeals and came just as new appeals were being started.

"One result of Judge Rudd's action was that each of us now has a permanent criminal record, a fact that Judge Rudd informed us about with considerable relish," the clergymen told a news conference in a prepared statement.

However, they said: "We interpret our release as a victory for the cause of civil rights and an admission by the city that the original case was without foundation."

They said they had been treated fairly in jail, although the Negroes were cursed one day by a guard while stacking brick. They said a complaint had been made to prison officials and profanity had stopped.

Their only objection to the four-day stay in prison was the segregated cells, Collier said.

Banner Year In Baseball . . .

This season will have to go down as East Liverpool's banner year in baseball.

The youth baseball program in the city which reaches boys from 9 through 17 blossomed on all fronts this summer with a good crop of players.

No matter what the future holds for the teams still in tournament play, this year has to be the most successful from the standpoint of the number of teams involved and their progress along the tournament trail.

Four teams were going at one time from the Colt League, Pony League, Little League and Legion Post 374.

However, the Little League American All-Stars were eliminated last night at Massillon by Cuyahoga Falls but were only one step away from the state semi-finals before they bowed out.

Also, the Pony Leaguers dropped their first game in a double elimination tournament at Springdale but aren't out of it yet.

It seems that the Pony League was the first team to put East Liverpool on the map as a baseball town from last year's success in the National Pony tournament.

That team was one of 16 remaining in the country but lost out in the Divisional play at Washington, Pa., only one step from the Pony World Series.

This year the Colt Leaguers have put East Liverpool in the national spotlight. Charlotte, N. C., will hear about this team when Colt Stars invade that city next week for the Divisional tournament. If East Liverpool can win there, a trip to Shawnee, Okla. and the World Series will be the next step.

The Pony League currently is engaged in a tournament at Springdale, Pa., where the locals are after another Regional championship. They already have won the District title, a feat they have accomplished the last three years.

Post 374, a team that started slow picked up momentum in mid-season, is shooting for the Ohio Hot Stove title.

The Legion nine, managed by Wayne Craig, won the District tournament at Salem to qualify for the state firing. Post 374 will meet Northwestern Saturday at 12:30 at Alliance.

ATTY. DON SMITH and his loyal committee deserve a big pat on the back for the successful Regional Colt Tournament held here last weekend.

All visiting teams were pleased with the way the tournament was handled and only disappointed over the outcome of the contests.

The Elks Club and Jim Massey, exalted ruler, worked closely with the Colt League and provided a major service in housing and feeding the visiting teams.

THE VOCIAL boys, Dick and Ed, can be credited with whipping the Colt All-Stars into a winning unit.

CHARLOTTE has its own Colt League field which seats 3,000 fans and the team from that city is the defending national Colt champion.

East Liverpool will play a team from the Charlotte area made up of players from that county, while another team from Charlotte is the defending champ.

THE NORTH Carolina city is where Bernie Allen broke into professional baseball, playing with the Charlotte Hornets in the Class AA Sally League four years ago.

They Like Martin In Wheeling . . .

JOHN HENRY Martin, one of the finest all-around athletes ever produced at Wellsville, took his knocks last year with the now defunct Syracuse Stormers of the United Football League.

His contract was picked up by the Wheeling Ironmen, the league champs, and after early workouts the Ironmen officials feel they have made a real catch in landing John Henry.

Bill Bibb, sports editor of the Wheeling Intelligencer, commented on what they were saying about Martin at the Ironmen's camp.

FRED LAUTER (center-linebacker): "I've never seen a man hit a hole as quick as he does."

LOU BLUMLING (assistant coach): "The quarterbacks are going to have to hand off to him faster than what they've been doing. If the quarterback hesitates just a second too long he's gonna be gone."

TOM BLAND (all NFL flanker last year): "Yeah, he's quite a football player. I remember last year when Martin tackled our defensive end on a pass play. John Henry really hit him. He jerked the ball loose from our end and when he got to his feet he still had his hands above his head in the same position they were in when he started to make the catch. John Henry just paralyzed him."

John didn't have much support last year at Syracuse, which was the door mat of the league. Bibb said, "Martin was just about the entire Syracuse franchise."

With a team like the champion Ironmen in front of him, Martin could have a good year in the NFL.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

JIM KAPP, a former Bill Booth award winner from ELHS, has enrolled at Eastern Michigan University to work on his Master's Degree.

Jim also will be assistant freshman coach at the university, beginning his duties there Aug. 29. He coached at Willard, Ohio, for two years.

DAN BALDWIN, Wellsville's all-time scoring ace in basketball, is expected to accept an assistant coaching job at Rochester High School, where he will be an aide to Jim Harris.

Dan was graduated from Steubenville College this past June.

WARREN, Ohio will be well represented at tonight's All-Star football game in Chicago. Paul Warfield, the former All-Ohio from Warren who became an All-American at Ohio State will be in the backfield for the college all-Stars while the Warren High band will perform during the halftime ceremonies.

'Ayes' Due To Race

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Ayres, favorite for the $125,000 Hambletonian at Du Quoin, Ill., Sept. 2, opposes nine other 3-year-old trotters in the $14,000 track team.

Locals Bow Out Of Little League Play

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

MASSILLON — The East Liverpool Americans reached the end of the state Little League tournament trail here Thursday night, bowing to Cuyahoga Falls, 4-0 in a sectional battle.

The victory sends the Cuyahoga nine into the state semi-finals next week at Dayton.

East Liverpool had won three games through the tournament grind and had captured another District 4 championship before falling by the wayside last night.

IT WAS a case of Cuyahoga

Falls taking full advantage of the fifth and two insurance markers in the sixth.

The East Liverpool nine had every opportunity to break the game open in the first inning but failed.

THE AMERICANS showed four hits in the opening frame but couldn't score.

Kim Kemple led off with a single but was thrown out stealing second base. Rick Eckles followed with a single and gained second base on the third hit of the inning by Gary Klembra.

After a popup, first baseman Joe Massey, a left handed batter, singled sharply to center but Eckles was tagged out at fielder Dick Skinner to catcher Bill Moles who successfully blocked off the plate to nail the sliding East Liverpool runner for the third out.

That proved to be East Liverpool's biggest threat of the contest as Cuyahoga's right-hander Buehrle went on to scatter three hits over the last five innings and fanned seven.

en batters on his way to the victory.

DON SMITH, a righthander, started for East Liverpool and retired eight batters in order before Randy Richards singled with two out in the third but later was eliminated in a rundown on a throw to the infield by rightfielder Joe March.

The fourth inning proved Smith's downfall as a double, single and his own error on a throw led to Cuyahoga's first run.

ANOTHER double and single in the fifth inning netted another run for the Northeastern Ohio team. Mike Smith came on in relief with no outs in the fifth inning but Cuyahoga scored before he fanned two batters to retire the side.

Smith walked the first two batters to face him in the sixth inning then gave up two more hits and a walk which netted Cuyahoga two more runs. Gary Klembra was called in from third base to pitch and promptly struck out two batters to end the inning.

All of East Liverpool's hits were singles with Eckles and Klembra leading the attack with two hits apiece.

Colt 45's Gun Down Phillies, 2-1

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dick Farrell of the Houston Colts, the first pitcher to win 10 games this year and who threatened to be the last to win 11, has ended a seven-week famine.

The hard-throwing right-hander defeated the National League-leading Philadelphia Phillies Thursday night, 2-1.

"I couldn't help wondering if it would ever come," Farrell said. There were 11 tries and six losses between victory No. 10 and 11.

Farrell, who had a brilliant 10-1 record on June 14, said he didn't think he was pressing at any time and hadn't thought about a 20-victory season.

Farrell has an 11-7 record now that the famine's ended, and has an outside chance to win 20. But he'd have to reel off the victories as quickly as he did the first 10.

Farrell's victory trimmed the Phillies' edge to 1½ games over the second-place San Francisco Giants, who were not scheduled.

Bucs Trip Dodgers Again

Third-place Cincinnati walked Milwaukee 9-3 with a 15-hit attack and closed to within four games of the top. Pittsburgh defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1 and St. Louis 5-4.

Farrell allowed only four hits before he was relieved in the ninth after Wes Covington doubled. Guy Triandos' single produced a run and brought in Jim Owens, who finally nailed Farrell's 11th by getting Tony Taylor to hit into a game-ending doubleplay.

The Colts scored their runs in the fourth against Chris Short, 10-6, on a triple by Al Spangler, 11-7, and a single by Nellie Fox, 12-8, a single by Walt Bond and Bob Aspromonte's sacrifice fly.

Deron Johnson and Frank Robinson produced most of the fireworks for the Reds, each collecting a triple, double and single. Vada Pinson chipped in with a homer and triggered a four-run seventh inning uprising against reliever Warren Spahn with a bunt single.

Hank Aaron was the Braves' attack, hitting a three-run homer.

Bill Mazeroski drove in three runs with a double and a single for the Pirates while Bob Friend, 10-11, kept nine Dodger hits well scattered. Consecutive triples by Manny Mota and Donn Clendenon in the fifth produced the other Pittsburgh run.

Tommy Davis, the defending batting champion, stroked three singles for the Dodgers, extending his hitting streak to 18 games and lifted his average to .281.

Bill White doubled home two runs and Dick Groat drove in a pair with two singles for the Cardinals. Bob Gibson went 8-23 innings but came out in the ninth. The Cubs scored one run and loaded the bases but Ernie Banks to end it.

The victory, squaring Gibson's record at 9-9, was his first since July 19.

QUESTION: What happens inside a car's cylinders?

ANSWER: A cylinder in a car is like a very heavy metal tube, closed at the top. It is highly polished inside and has a strong metal piece exactly fitting it which can slide up and down: the piston. A pin goes through the piston, holding the connecting rod (the piston has an opening at the bottom, allowing the rod to move back and forth.) As it revolves, the connecting rod turns the crankshaft, this giving the power to move the wheels and make the car go, in much the way you make your bike go by pressing down on the foot pedal.

A "spark plug" comes down through the top of the cylinder. A mixture of air and gasoline vapor is drawn through another opening in the cylinder head. In one of the up strokes of the piston, this opening is closed and the fuel mixture compressed so it becomes capable of very rapid burning. This takes place when a spark is produced by the spark plug. The fuel is touched off almost as if you had reached in with a burning match. The resulting "power stroke" drives the piston down. As it comes up again it drives out the exhaust gases from still another opening on the top of the cylinder. Then, coming down, the fuel pulls the fuel mixture in and compresses it, when another spark gives another power stroke.

FOR YOU TO DO: Talk to someone who owns an auto and ask about the economy of a small car with few cylinders and the power of a big car with more cylinders.

How Can I?
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I remove stains caused by leather rubbing against a fabric?

A. These are on the difficult side. However, if the fabric is washable, try a thick soap-and-water solution, rubbing well over the fabric. You might make matters easier, too, if glycerin is worked into the stain first and allowed to stand awhile before washing. For un-washable fabrics, try glycerin, working this into the stain carefully by rubbing lightly between the hands. Let this remain for awhile, then rinse by sponging with water.

Q.—How can I remove shine from suits and skirts?

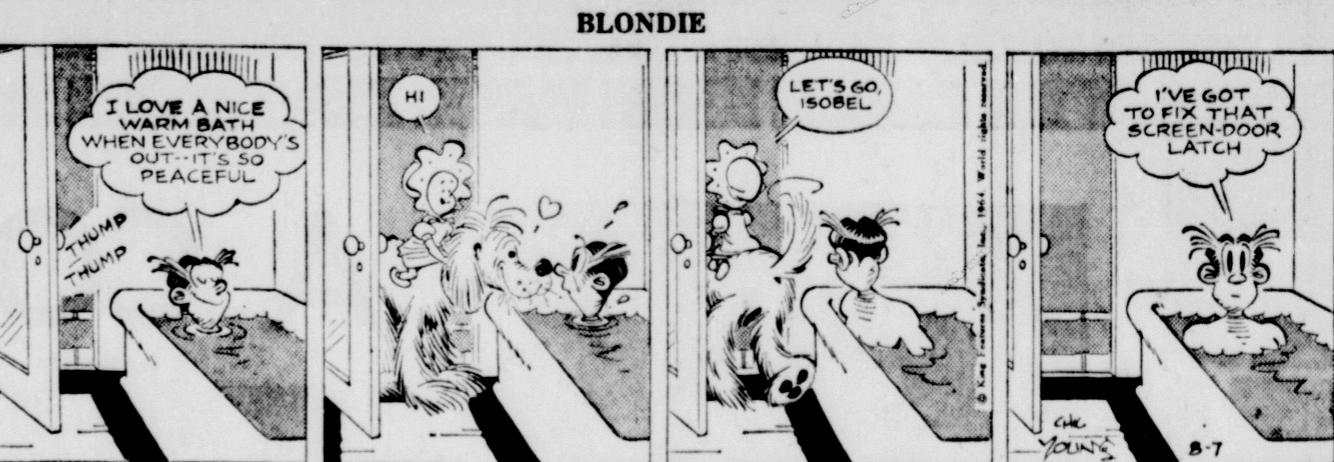

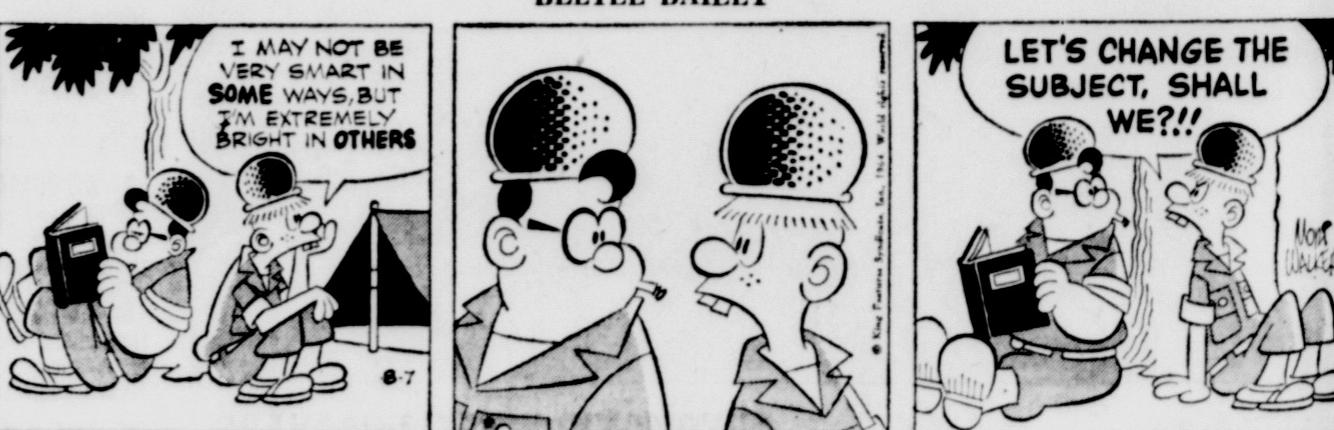

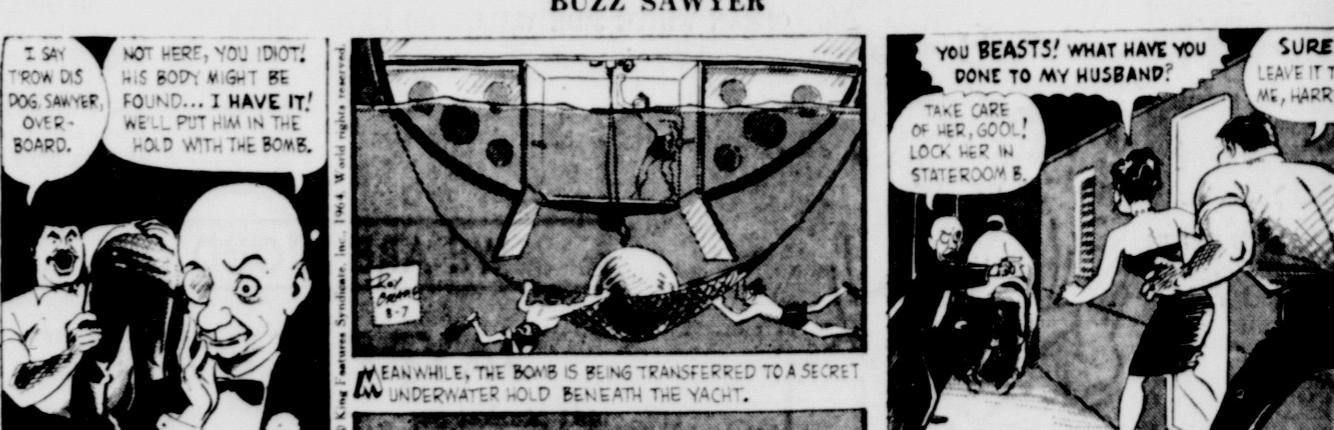

A. Use a brush dipped into a mixture of equal parts of pure cold vinegar and warm water. Put a pressing cloth between your iron and the garment to prevent further shine.

Q.—How can I remove dried paint spatters from my window pane?

A. Often you can melt the grease by holding an electric iron, turned to its hottest point, against the drainpipe at the trap. Then allow the hot waxing or scraping off.

Q.—How can I cope with a kitchen drain that has become stopped up with grease?

A. Often you can melt the grease by holding an electric iron, turned to its hottest point, against the drainpipe at the trap. Then allow the hot waxing or scraping off.
